ARREST MADE IN "EAT-'EM-UP" MURDER CASE

University Settlement Man Said to Have Seen McManus Killed.

LA young man giving the name of Auon the Bowery Thursday night. Metz is an Italian, living at No. 83 Bayard treet, and his German name is an illus-tration of the growing tendency of young Italians to take Irish or German pseudonyms when they join one of the lower east side gangs.

The detectives are reticent about the

A man named Nichols, who is a member of the University Settlement, was walking up the Bowery when the assuasin sneaked behind McManus and struck him down. Mr. Nichols feels confident that he can identify the murderer. After Metz was examined by Inspector Schmittberger Mr. Nichols Was arraigned in count! was sent for.

Battles are looked for along the Bowery and in Chinatown to-night. The success of the man who killed the ter-about to pinion his arms when he told them he was watching Kelly and snowed his shield.

From one end of the Bowery to the other there was the rumor that Kelly was to be "done," and friends of Kelly was to be "done," and friends of Kelly was eabout waiting to take a hand in the fight when it came off.

About daylight Kelly, with a dozon members of his gang, went to Chinatown, and it was said that every opportunity was given to the members of the gang that yesterday killed "Battem," to "do" Kelly, but there was no fight.

Chinatown was filled with policemen to prevent trouble, and members of the Five Points gang contented themselves with saying that Kelly had advertised his visit so well that he was certain to have the police on hand.

Jimmy Hanley, eight years old, of No. 213 West Sixty-first street, and Michael Gamina, the same age, of No. have the police on hand.
